

The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society invites you to a private reception March 12, 2009 to meet Gary Jobson, Emmy award-winning sailing commentator, America's Cup winner and author of 15 books on sailing.

Gary will be at the kick off meeting for this year's Leukemia Cup Regatta on March 12th. Come meet Gary, see exclusive video and hear him speak about: 2008 Beijing Olympics highlights, 2008/2009 Volvo Ocean Race, 100th Chicago Yacht Club Race to Mackinac, America's Cup History and much more.

You'll also learn how you can raise a sail or start your engine on June 6, 2009 to help fight leukemia and lymphoma. Registration will be open and those who register their boats at the kick-off will receive a 2009 commemorative Leukemia Cup burgee.

This will be the 15th Annual Leukemia Cup Regatta – www.leukemicup.org/wa It's the largest charity event in boating in the country. It combines the joy of boating with the important task of raising money to help fight blood cancers and last year raised $3.7 million nationally. Don't miss out on this fun and rewarding opportunity to enjoy your boat and enjoy helping others at the same time.

When: March 12, 2009, 6 p.m.

Where: Pocock Rowing Club
3320 Fuhrman Ave. E
Seattle, WA 98102

Cost: Free

RSVP: Allison Miyauchi
206-957-4577
Allison.Miyauchi@lls.org
Space is limited. Please RSVP by March 5, 2009.