

POLICING THE PORT

The Port of Seattle Police Department is looking for men and women who are professional, open-minded and sensitive to the needs of the diverse community they serve. Port of Seattle Officers have frequent public contact, interacting with thousands of people each day. They are the primary law enforcement responder for Port of Seattle owned and operated properties. This includes the Seattle-Tacoma International Airport, surrounding properties, and major portions of the Seattle waterfront. Strong writing and verbal communication skills, strong social and interpersonal skills, personal motivation and strong personal ethics are required. Port of Seattle Police Officers frequently interact with federal and state agencies, the public, and tenants, so a cooperative spirit, tact and diplomacy are essential. The Port of Seattle Police Department offers many career challenges along with the opportunity to contribute a vital public service to our community.

The Port of Seattle Police Department is currently contracted with PublicSafetyTesting.com (PST) to conduct our written and physical ability examinations. Please visit their web site for all necessary information. You can also contact them toll-free at 1-866-HIRE-911.
