

Community Leaders Support

Steve Metruck

Executive Director, Port of Seattle

HEATHER TRIM

Executive Director, Zero Waste Washington

"Along with others from the environmental community around Puget Sound, we look forward to working with Steve in his new capacity at the helm at the Port of Seattle," said Zero Waste Washington Executive Director, Heather Trim. "His proactive approach to sustainability issues during his tenure as Commander of the U.S. Coast Guard Sector Puget Sound indicates that he will bring a similar style to the Port."

REGINA GLENN

President and CEO, Pacific Communications Consultants, Inc.

"Steve's career to-date shows an in-depth understanding of collaborative community partnerships and accountability which are critical components of good leadership," said Regina Glenn, President and CEO of Pacific Communications Consultants, Inc. "I look forward to working with Steve to align the Port's staff with the Port's policies to embrace diverse constituents' economic development needs and enforce a meaningful, monitored and measured inclusion program."

MONTY ANDERSON

Executive Secretary, Seattle Building and Construction Trades

"The Port is a significant driver of the local economy and construction jobs. We look forward to getting to know Steve and working together to expand apprenticeship opportunities and family wage jobs at the Port of Seattle,"

SARAH SCHERER

Director and Associate Dean Seattle Maritime Academy

"I'm excited to see a retired U.S. Coast Guard Rear Admiral taking over the top post at the Port of Seattle. Being deployed to a new assignment every 3-5 years teaches a military officer to know how to walk into a new job, gather information quickly and effectively and then hit the ground running. He was also a Captain of the Port so he has extensive experience on how to work with many stakeholders on sensitive issues.

"We need someone in this role to have a great balance between listening and being decisive. I believe Steve is that person. He has an extensive background and experience in the maritime world. I believe he will be a supportive voice in raising awareness about expansive opportunities for youth and career growth in our field."

VINCE O'HALLORAN

Branch Agent, Sailor's Union of the Pacific

"We are extremely pleased with the appointment of Steve Metruck as Executive Director for the Port of Seattle. During Mr. Metruck's tenure as Captain of the Port, Sector Puget Sound, Steve regularly invited all 'stakeholders' to participate with decisions that affected any segment of Seattle's maritime industries. On behalf of the maritime trades, we look forward to working with Steve."

CAPTAIN MIKE MOORE

Regional VP, Pacific Merchant Shipping Association

"Steve Metruck brings a wealth of experience in maritime and public policy issues back to our region."
