Biometric Air Exit

The use of facial recognition by the Port, airline tenants, and/or by Customs and Border Patrol (CBP) itself as part of CBP’s Traveler Verification Service to confirm the identities of departing international airline passengers as they board an aircraft.

Public-Facing Biometrics Guiding Principles

- Justified: Should be used only for a clear and intended purpose and not for surveillance on large groups without a lawful purpose.
- Private: Should be stored for no longer than required by applicable law or regulations and should be protected against unauthorized access.
- Equitable: Should be reasonably accurate in identifying people of all backgrounds, and systems should be in place to treat mismatching issues.
- Transparent: Should be communicated to visitors and travelers.
- Lawful: Should comply with all laws, including privacy laws and laws prohibiting discrimination.
- Ethical: Should act ethically when deploying technology or handling biometric data.
- Voluntary: Should be voluntary and reasonable alternatives should be provided for those who do not wish to participate through an opt-in or opt-out process.
