

Walking paths and overlook

Hand-carried boat launch

Restored wetland

Public pier and viewpoint

Terminal 117 habitat site

Restored marsh and riparian shoreline

Duwamish River

 Terminal 117 project will provide park space, juvenile salmon recovery, and over 2,000 feet of shoreline habitat.

LEARN MORE!
Wax Badan ka Baro!
¡Aprenda más!
Hãy tìm hiểu thêm!
ស្វែងយល់បន្ថែម!

Port of Seattle
P.O. Box 1209
Seattle, WA 98111

Stay up to date with your port, sign up for updates www.portseattle.org/subscribe

TERMINAL 117 HABITAT RESTORATION AND SHORELINE PARK ACCESS PROJECT

EXCITING PROJECT UPDATE: The Port of Seattle will start construction on Terminal 117 in South Park this summer. Learn about job opportunities, construction safety, community activities, project updates, and more!

VISIT: www.portseattle.org/t117habitat

CONTACT:

Dave Jenkins, Port of Seattle,
t117habitat@portseattle.org | (206) 423-1509

James Rasmussen, Duwamish River Cleanup Coalition
james@duwamishcleanup.org | (206) 954-0218

KEY FEATURES

- Public gathering area, seating, shoreline pathways
- Public art
- Pathway and bridge to 275 feet long public pier and viewpoints
- Interpretive trail to 0.5 acre restored marsh and riparian area
- Hand-carried boat launch
- 5.5 acres of restored marsh and native riparian shoreline
- Access stairway to 35 feet high waterway and habitat viewing platform

CONSTRUCTION SCHEDULE JULY 2020 – OCTOBER 2021

