If these four (4) persons cannot affect a settlement within seven (7) days after the dispute has been referred to them the matter shall proceed to Step Three.

Step Three: The issue shall be referred to mediation. The parties shall request a mediator from either the Federal Mediation & Conciliation Service (FMCS), or the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC), or other mutually acceptable services. This person shall serve as the mediator to resolve the dispute. The expense of employing the mediator shall be borne equally by both parties and each party shall be responsible for their own attorney fees and costs. Should the parties fail to reach agreement, the matter shall proceed to Step Four.

Step Four: The parties shall request a list of seven arbitrators from FMCS, PERC, or other acceptable services and shall alternately strike names until only one name remains. This person shall serve as the arbitrator to resolve the dispute. The expense of employing the arbitrator shall be borne equally by both parties and each party shall be responsible for their own attorney fees and costs. By mutual agreement, the aforementioned time frames in this Article may be waived or extended.

Discipline to be considered valid shall be issued within thirty (30) working days of the date of violation or knowledge of the violation. In cases of gross misconduct, such as, but not limited to, instances involving theft or physical assault, immediate discharge or suspension may be accomplished without prior warning notice.
- Warning notices must be timely. With the exception of a discharge or suspension for gross misconduct or disciplinary investigation in which an extension of time is requested by the employer, any disciplinary action shall be null and void unless issued in writing and given to the regular employee and sent to the Union within thirty (30) working days of such violation. (If the employee is unavailable, the warning notice may be sent to their last reported home address.)
- E. Written Warnings: A copy of a warning notice shall be sent to the Union at the time it is given to the regular employee.
- F. Protest of Discharge, Suspension, or Written Warnings: Any regular employee may request an investigation of their discharge, suspension, or warning notice; and the Union shall have the right to protest any such discharge, suspension, or warning notice. Any such protest shall be presented to the Port in writing within fifteen (15) working days after the discharge, suspension, or warning notice; and if not presented within such period, the right of protest shall be waived.
