

Subject: [MARKETING] Connections: Hasegawa and Mohamed Make History at the Port
Date: Friday, January 21, 2022 8:01:30 AM

To view this email as a web page, go here.

COMMISSION

Hasegawa and Mohamed Make History at the Port

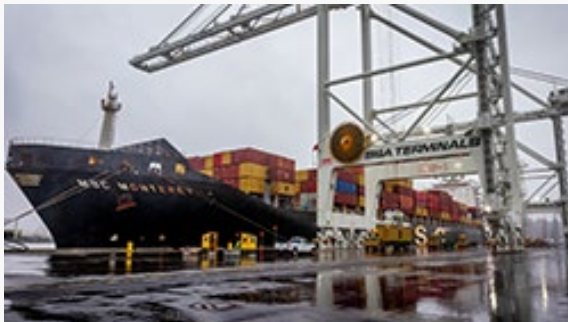

Toshiko Hasegawa and Hamdi Mohamed made history this year when they became the first women of color to join the Port of Seattle Commission. For the first time in the organization's 110-year history, a majority of Port of Seattle Commissioners are people of color.

Keep reading →

MARITIME

NWSA Welcomes First Vessel Call to the Newly Modernized Terminal 5

The MSC Monterey was the first vessel to call the Northwest Seaport Alliance's newly modernized Terminal 5. The strategic investment of modernizing T5 will increase cargo capacity and job opportunities in the Puget Sound region, and enable NWSA to service the largest vessels in the Transpacific trade.

Keep reading →

COMMUNITY

First-Ever Statewide Anti-Human Trafficking Campaign Launches

During Human Trafficking Awareness Month, cities, counties, transit authorities, airports, and seaports across Washington and beyond are combining forces to prevent human trafficking with the Not Alone campaign, the first-ever statewide initiative to encourage victims of human trafficking to seek help.

Keep reading →

COMMUNITY

Rent Relief Helps Port Tenant Flourish

Will and Kyleen Nicholls were planning for another busy summer for their family-owned Seattle business, Green Latrine when COVID-19 brought their best laid plans to a screeching halt. As part of its regional economic recovery efforts, the Port provided timely relief to tenants in the form of deferments and lease adjustments. The flexibility with rent payments made a big difference for Green Latrine, a tenant at Port Terminal 91 facility, until it was able to pivot and regain its footing.

Keep reading →

COMMUNITY

What's New and Next for Public Art at the Port

Throughout the pandemic, the Port has remained committed to bringing public art to the community, visitors, and travelers from across the globe. In 2021, as the Port worked to restore operations and lead a regional economic recovery, it was a priority to grow and evolve the public art program to reflect the community and region we serve. Read on for some 2021 public art milestones and what to look forward to in 2022.

Keep reading →

COMMISSION

Port Commission meeting recap

Read more →

RECAP JANUARY 4: The Port Commission elected a slate of officers for the calendar year 2022 and heard briefings on the 2021 Port of Seattle Affirmative Action Program, Port of Seattle Tourism Recovery Initiatives, and the 2022 Federal Legislative Agenda. The Commission also heard an Equity Motion and Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Assessment Final Report. View video→

UP NEXT JANUARY 25: Port Commission will conduct a public hearing and introduction to a resolution declaring surplus and no longer needed for Port District purposes for approximately 2.56 acres of Port-owned real property. Commission will also consider the execution of Contract Agreements for the 2022 selected Tourism Marketing Support Program recipients and hear a

In Case You Missed It

AIRPORT TECH TRENDS At SEA and across the globe, tech advancements are making travel safer and easier, and airport operations more sustainable and efficient. Learn what's here and coming soon. Keep reading→

POLLOCK MURAL When cruise ships dock at Pier 91 at Smith Cove, passengers will step off the ship to a colorful 100-foot-long mural – starring the North Pacific Fishing Fleet's greatest catch, Wild Alaskan Pollock. Keep reading→

APPS FOR THE AIRPORT Before you head back to the airport, put technology to work for you with these apps, relevant to traveling, airport terminals, and your travel experience. Keep reading→

CARES The South King County Community Impact Fund grantee helps BIPOC communities enter and successfully complete pre-apprenticeship programs in Port-related industries. Keep reading→

SUSTAINABLE CENTURY AWARDS

Do you know of a business doing amazing work supporting the local environment? The Sustainable Century Awards publicly applaud the outstanding environmental accomplishments of Port customers, tenants, non-profits, and business partners of all sizes. Submit your nomination by 5 p.m. February 2, 2022. Learn more>

CONTACT US

Have a question or a suggestion?

Email us at connections@portseattle.org

Copyright © 2022

All rights reserved

Port of Seattle Commission

Ryan Calkins
Sam Cho
Fred Felleman
Toshiko Hasegawa
Hamdi Mohamed

Port of Seattle
Executive Director

Stephen P. Metruck

Port of Seattle®

2711 Alaskan Way, Seattle, WA, 98121 US

Privacy Policy

Update Profile

Manage Subscriptions

Unsubscribe