Juneteenth and Other Celebrations and Traditions

Juneteenth commemorates the anniversary of when the delayed news of emancipation arrived in Galveston, Texas in 1865. The holiday is a chance to recognize Black history and resilience, and the ongoing progress for change to come. Learn more about efforts to make Juneteenth a federal holiday and ways to recognize and honor the day.

CRUISE

Cruise: Routine Schedule, Innovative Operations

After two years of dramatic change, the 2022 cruise season is shaping up as one of Seattle's most active and innovative seasons ever. So far, 83 sailings have brought approximately 86,000 people through Bell Street Cruise Terminal at Pier 66 and Smith Cove Cruise Terminal at Pier 91. This year, we are expecting 1.29 million revenue passengers, an increase over the pre-pandemic record level of 1.2 million in 2019.

HEALTHY HABITATS

Increasing Tree Canopy and Supporting Community Partnerships

Thanks to an initial investment of $450,000 from the Port of Seattle, non profit Forterra secured an additional $300,000 in funding for canopy enhancement projects in collaboration with Highline Public Schools and the Washington State Department of Natural Resources (DNR). This funding enabled the program to increase canopy on or within one quarter mile of select public schools in SeaTac, Burien, and Des Moines.
