

Highline Forum - November 20, 2024
Presented by Councilmember Joe Vinson

Mercy Housing

At Angle Lake LINK station

Under construction

130 affordable housing units with on-site support services

The Amelia

30th Avenue S. and S. 200th Street

Now leasing

Mixed market rate and moderately affordable workforce housing

Cymbaluk Apartments 20220 International Blvd.

Broke ground
July 23, 2024

Mixed market rate, affordable and moderately affordable/workforce housing

Responding to the Arrival of Asylum Seekers

- The City of SeaTac responded to the need in our community.
- SeaTac was the only city awarded funds by the Washington State Office of Refugee and Immigrant Affairs (ORIA).
- We are working with an organization in the city to support us with providing emergency housing.

Complete Streets & Safe Routes to School

CURB GUTTER AND SIDEWALK

CONNECTION TO PUBLIC
TRANSPORTATION

SAFE ACCESS TO SCHOOL

PEDESTRIAN LIGHTING

Sidewalk Improvements River Ridge Elementary School Military Road S. to the City of Kent border

Sidewalk Improvements
Connecting to SEA LINK station
34th Avenue S. from 161st to 167th Streets

Governor Jay Inslee
joins the celebration

Investments in the Community

---

Urban Forester hired for the preservation of trees and green space.

Farmer's Market Pilot Program

Partnership with African Community Housing Development (ACHD). Held at Matt Griffin YMCA, offering culturally relevant produce, foods and goods.

Public Safety

Opened a police storefront at the Polaris Apartments (S. 154th St. and International Blvd.)
Led by Community Outreach Officer Will Bisesto.

Seven businesses enrolled in newly launched Business Watch Program. Managed by Community Service Officer Denise Contreras.

Hired a mental health professional to assist police with calls involving behavioral situations. Officer Meredith Carr responds and refers individuals to services.

The City of SeaTac has many more accomplishments to share.

A comprehensive report on the State of City will be released soon.

