

Port Allies Against Human Trafficking (PAAHT) Pledge

The Port of Seattle’s Port Allies Against Human Trafficking (PAAHT) pledge calls on all Port Stakeholders within the Business Development, Maritime, and Aviation Industries to join us in our commitment to employee education, raising public awareness, and measuring our collective impact by joining together to stop Human Trafficking.

By signing this Pledge, you affirm that you are authorized to make this voluntary commitment on behalf of your organization, and you acknowledge and agree to grant the Port of Seattle permission to publicly reference that your organization is a signatory to the PAAHT Pledge. Submit your pledge to antihumantrafficking@portseattle.org.
