

Port of Seattle
2025 Noise Monitoring Data Maintenance Issue Log

Date	Latest Status	Noise Monitor	Description	Latest Action	Loss of Data (if applicable)
9/12/2023	Completed	SEA03	Non-contactable	SEA03 located at Maple Leaf in north Seattle was struck by a vehicle and severely damaged. It has been determined that the entire structure that houses and powers the monitor will need to be replaced as a result of this damage.	Loss of data from 12:49 pm on 9/12/2023 to 05:27 on 2/14/2025
4/16/2024	On-going	SEA10	Power line	Power line appears to be snapped at this location, working with Seattle City Light to investigate and restore power at this site. Possible issue with wood pole breaker box is mounted on. 8/28/2025 fuse box mounted on new power pole.	Loss of data starting at 20:29 on 4/14/2024
1/5/2025	Completed	SEA09	Non-contactable	Located in Jefferson Park on Beacon Hill. Unit was non-contactable just after midnight, door was forced open and contents inside were gone, microphone cable cut.	Loss of data started at 23:53 on 1/5/2025 to 10:58 on 5/22/2025
1/14/2025	Completed	SEA4b	data download glitch	Missing data due to a series of data download gitches	Loss data starting 22:58 on 1/14/2025 to 02:03 1/21/2025
6/27/2025	On-going	SEA4b	Non-contactable	No power to unit, construction work taking place at Catherine Blaine Elementary. Construction Foreman informed us that they cut power to the entire area as they do electrical work at the school. They do not anticipate getting power restored to the site until August/September.	Loss of data starting at 19:18 on 6/27/2025 to ...
8/20/2025	on-going	SEA09		pole appears to have been hit and is severed from base plate, Port of Seattle Maintenance dept is determining if it can be fixed in-house or if a new pole is needed.	Loss of data starting on 8/20/2025
8/14/2025	on-going	SEA10	Equipment vandalized	Door was forced open and contents inside gone, microphone cable disconnected. Awaiting quote for replacement.	