

Leading the Fight Against Human Trafficking

Be the reason someone gets help — one hour can make a difference. Featuring Detective Matt Huston, POSPD

Join us for a powerful, in-person, (free!) one-hour session designed to empower frontline employees to identify and report human trafficking. All are welcome.

What You'll Learn:

- How to train others to identify and report human trafficking
- What actually happens when a report is made?
- How to empower frontline staff to take action

Why you should attend:

- Strengthen your leadership in employee and customer safety
- Be the reason someone gets help — this training could save a life
