

Port of Seattle
2026 Noise Monitoring Data Maintenance Issue Log

Date	Latest Status	Noise Monitor	Description	Latest Action	Loss of Data (if applicable)
4/16/2024	On-going	SEA10	Power line	Power line appears to be snipped at this location, working with Seattle City Light to investigate and restore power at this site. Possible issue with wood pole breaker box is mounted on. 8/28/2025 fuse box mounted on new power pole.	Loss of data starting at 20:29 on 4/14/2024
8/14/2025	on-going	SEA10	Equipment vandalized	Door was forced open and contents inside gone, microphone cable disconnected. Awaiting equipment replacement.
8/20/2025	on-going	SEA09		pole appears to have been hit and is severed from base plate, Port of Seattle Maintenance dept is determining if it can be fixed in-house or if a new pole is needed.	Loss of data starting on 8/20/2025
3/11/2026	completed	SEA14	non-contactable	unable to remotely troubleshoot, site visit required. Due to snow there was a delay in reaching unit.	Loss data from 00:40 on 3/11/2026 to 01:26 on 3/19/2026
3/13/2026	completed	SEA28	non-contactable	unable to remotely troubleshoot, site visit required. Due to snow there was a delay in reaching unit.	Loss data from 00:55 on 3/13/2026 to 11:30 on 3/18/2026